Judicial Activism :-

The supreme court has been made a guardian and protector of the constitution - The Constitution has assigned it the role to ensure rule of law including the supremacy of law in the country. For this purpose, it has been conferred wide power of Judicial review.

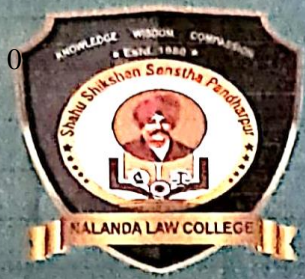

Judicial activism may be taken to mean the movements of the judiciary to probe into the inner functioning of the other organs of the government. The Judicial activism, is no doubt, the result of inactiveness on the part of the Executive and Legislature. It is the function of the legislature to make a law and of the executive to implement the law but both the organs have failed to discharge their functions satisfactorily. In such circumstances, it is not the power but duty of the court to uphold the constitution and compel the other organs of the Government to discharge their functions properly. The supreme court being the guardian of the constitution can not remain silent spectator. It can direct the legislature and executive to discharge the functions assigned to them by the constitution. No doubt, the doctrine of separation of powers says that each organ of the Govt.

should perform its own functions and should not interfere with the functioning of the other organ. or should not usurp the functions or powers of the organ but at the same time the judiciary, in addition to its judicial functions, have been assigned the function to see that the constitution is not violated by any person, body or authority including the legislature or Executive. If the Executive and legislature do not perform the functions assigned to them by the constitution, the court may

PROJECT WORK

PROJECT WORK

6. Various system of franchise and representation are followed, to assure the success of democracy
  7. Democracy means, 'government by the people' but modern states are too large to permit the entire population to run the government.
  8. Thus, the people elect members to the legislature to represent them as government
  9. The Elected member, is supposed and expected to speak and act on behalf of all the people of his Constituency
  10. There are two bases of representation, Territorial and Functional. These are modern Concepts earlier the representation was on the basis of Occupation and status.
  11. To elect members to various institutions such as the legislature, municipalities, etc.
  12. The Country is subdivided into smaller districts Constituencies that have equal population
  13. It is being discarded as the Constituencies are too large to manage, lacks the personal contact between the voter and the representative and ~~majority~~ majority in the Constituency sweeps the and deprives the minority
- Proportional Representation is a recent trend.
- Single-member Constituencies
- Simple-majority election often result in inconsistency.

1. Discuss judiciary functions and roles

Judiciary Functions and Roles are as follows :-

- Functions

- i. Administration of justice is the primary function of the judiciary. It judges or decides disputes between individuals, between individuals and the state, and criminal cases in which person are accused of crime. In deciding cases, courts determine facts and then apply the law.
- ii. In most cases, law is clear and easily applicable, but if the law is ambiguous, or does not cover the cases or there is inconsistency between two laws or two provisions of the same law, the judge determine the meaning thereof or which of two provisions or law should be applied.
- iii. In determining true meaning of laws, interpreting the law, resolving inconsistencies, judges are guided by the principles of equity, common sense and natural justice. They also consider the decisions of highest courts of their own country or in other lands and the writings and commentaries of
